Letter: I witnessed Oravec's development into keen city leader

Greg Oravec is an exceptional public servant. I had the privilege of working with him when I was city manager of South Miami.

He had just graduated from the University of Miami, and I think I may have been his first public-sector boss. He was exemplary in all regards.

His integrity, intellect, commitment and work ethic are unmatched. He was a creative consensus builder and was a major contributor who helped South Miami achieve the status of All-America City. Given by the National Civic League, it is one of the most prestigious awards a city can receive.

Port St. Lucie has the potential to truly become the All-America City for all ages with the leadership of Oravec.
