Letter: No question Oravec is best candidate for Port St. Lucie mayor

Recently, I read the overview of all six of the Port St. Lucie mayoral candidates. I hear that the word in the community is the incumbent is always getting in trouble. It's one of the reasons our city is not taken seriously. Another allegedly was charged with assault. One likes to hear himself talk, so he doesn't listen well — uses the "I" word a lot.

Another is running for no good reason. Another has a future, but he wants to be a general without going up the ranks. Another is the youngest candidate with the most extensive experience for the job.

All except the younger candidate bought and paid for the right to run. He earned the right to run by hitting the streets to collect the signatures.

The U.S. Marines say, "earned, never given." Greg Oravec is my family's choice. Based on his smarts and work ethic, he should be your choice, too.
