Letter: Oravec easy to spot — the candidate with his sleeves rolled up

As we approach another election cycle, I can't help but notice that the only candidate speaking out on the issues concerning Port St. Lucie is none other than Greg Oravec.

Greg has educated himself on the important issues facing the voters. He is well versed and knowledgeable, and seems to be a "lonely voice in the wilderness" when it comes to speaking out in a forthright way on these issues.

I know the candidate to be a churchgoing, honest family man who has devoted himself to public service. Greg has the personal integrity to deserve the term "Honorable" next to his name.

One of his stated goals is to attract businesses to the U.S. 1 corridor and reverse the recent history of vacant malls and empty stores. He wants to see our city returned its former glory of being one of the best cities in America in which to live and raise a family.

Oravec has his sleeves rolled up and is very capable and willing to take on those special-interest groups and shake up the status quo at City Hall.

He is a man on a mission with a fantastic vision for our city. He wishes to give his constituents a say in their government and a voice in how it should be run. Turn out on Aug. 26 to vote for Greg Oravec.
