GREGORY J. ORAVEC BELIEVES IN PORT ST. LUCIE

HE BELIEVES...

- That, working together, our city can truly be a “City for All Ages”
- In hard work
- In honoring the core values of honesty, excellence, integrity, civility and service
- In accountability

GREGORY J. ORAVEC’S FOUR GOALS FOR PORT ST. LUCIE:

- Be an award winning safe, clean and beautiful city with the lowest possible tax rate providing our citizens with the “Good Life” at great value.
- Reduce our debt and make smart investments in our quality of life, such as sidewalks and road improvements.
- Use investments already made, such as City Center and Tradition Studios, to create new jobs.
- Partner with all interested parties to create jobs; capture the full potential of regional assets; improve our schools; preserve our agricultural and natural areas.

ABOUT GREGORY J. ORAVEC

Father, husband, small business owner, former CRA Director and City Manager for Port St. Lucie.

Greg's experience spans 17 years in key government positions such as director of planning & zoning, CRA director, assistant city manager and city manager.

"I feel very fortunate to have been able to lead the City of Port St. Lucie and manage projects of all shapes and sizes over the last dozen years, from serving as CEO of a municipal corporation with 1,000 employees and a budget of $500 million to being the guy responsible for picking up litter off of our streets."
