

Oravec most qualified choice

Just like everyone else in Port St. Lucie, the quality of my life and that of my family will be impacted by the results of the upcoming elections.

Like everyone else, I only have one vote, so I want to make sure it goes to the best, most qualified candidate. For mayor, I will vote for Greg Oravec.

I am not implying faults with any other candidate, but I know Greg has the experience, integrity and desire to be a great mayor.

I know these things because I have worked with him and seen him demonstrate the qualities needed for the job.

I will be honest and admit he and I do not agree on everything, but that's just matters of opinion. My support for Greg comes from being witness to his work ethic, dedication to detail and his sincere desire to excel at any task he applies himself to.

There is one more factor that I feel is as important as all the rest: his qualities as a person. All the other factors of experience, integrity and dedication don't mean a thing unless they are applied by a man with empathy and moral character. Greg possesses all of these traits, and without reservation I encourage support for his candidacy.

---

Robert Minsky is former mayor of Port St. Lucie.